

FMH Instructional Faculty

Teaching Faculty are under the supervision of the high school Principal.

Benefits

- Part of a supportive team of life-long learning
- Competitive salary among similar schools
- Continuing education tuition assistance
- Retirement plan
- Regular professional development

Qualifications

- Have a high school diploma and participate in FMH's professional development program.
- Commitment to a relationship with Jesus Christ, exhibited by love, grace, and a consistent application of God's Word and prayer.
- Enthusiastically supports Christian education and the FMH mission and vision.
- Maintain high standards of ethics, honesty, and integrity in all personal and professional matters.
- Ability to work gracefully with parents, students, school staff, and the administrative team.

Responsibilities

- Challenges and instructs students to integrate Biblical principles as a regular aspect of classroom.
- Communicates clearly and concisely what students should expect from the class, the material taught, and how they can succeed.
- Teaches so that students can learn in a challenging, yet inspirational environment.
- Maintains a well-ordered, well-organized classroom that is conducive to teaching and learning.

Questions and resumes can be sent to the school administrator, Mr Paul (Harrison)

MrPaul@FaithHighSchool.org or calling 717-442-8818